Travel

Getting to Split

Split is easy to reach whether by plane, boat, bus, train or car. Most likely your first stop in Croatia will be Zagreb. Here is the map showing how you can reach Split from Zagreb.

BY PLANE

In summer months there are quite a few low-cost carriers that fly directly to Split from a number of cities in Europe. You can also reach Split via a stopover in Zagreb.

Split Airport (see on the map) is located half an hour from city centre, about 20 km west of Split, and about 6 km from Trogir. Scheduled services fly to major European cities, with many charter flights in summer.

For more information visit the Split Airport website.

To and from Split airport

Shuttle Bus Service

A shuttle bus operates between the airport and the city centre. Information: www.plesoprijevoz.hr. All international arrivals are linked to the local bus service. The trip in one direction takes about half an hour. Split Bus Terminal is located in the center of Split, just next to the city's airport and railway station. Tickets for transportation can be bought at the bus station, the airport of Split and at the driver on the bus.

Time table of arrivals to Split Main bus station can be found here.

A single ticket costs approximately 4 € (30 HRK).

Public Transport

There is a bus stop close to Split Airport. Lines No. 37 (Split – Trogir; Trogir – Split) and No. 38 (Split Airport – Kastel Stari – Split; Split – Kastel Stari – Split Airport). For more information click here.

Private or shared transfer

If you be picked up in the Airport, you can pre book a transfer, the driver would then wait for you at the airport, holding a sign with your name on it. A pre booked transfer from Split Airport to Split cost around 35 €, for 1-3 persons, and about 45 € for up to 8 persons. You can see actual prices and pre-book a transfer to Split here. If you are heading for other destinations in Croatia you can find transfer offer here.

Rent a Car

At the airport you have option to rent a car from local as well as international car rental companies, offers for car rental at the Split airport you can find here.

Taxi

Taxi service is available during Split Airport operating hours.

Phone:++385(0)21895 237

You can also pre-book a taxi. A taxi from the airport to the centre (ferry port or Diocletian's Palace) takes a bit over 30 min and costs about 30-35 EUR (250 HRK).

Other airports

Zadar (160 km, regular bus service to Split). How to reach Split from Zadar see here.

Zagreb (400 km, regular train, bus and plane service to Split).

BY BOAT/FERRY

There are year-round ferries from Ancona in Italy, with a higher frequency of ferries during the summer months. See Travelling from Ancona to Croatia page for more details.

There is also a fast catamaran service during summer.

Carriers: Jadrolinija and Blue Line Ferries.

BY BUS

The bus terminal in Split is located in the very centre of the city, right next to the city harbour and railway station. There are regular international bus lines to and from Split. There are also many buses to and from Zagreb every day. The journey takes 5 – 7 hours (depending on the line and carrier). For more information see the websites of the bus stations in Split and Zagreb.

BY TRAIN

It is possible to travel by train to Split from elsewhere in Europe, although the majority of routes involve a change of trains at Zagreb. There are regular lines to and from Zagreb, which take 6 – 9 hours, depending on the line. Timetables are available at the Croatian Railways website.

BY CAR

The highway connecting Zagreb and Split has shortened travel time between the two cities to a mere 3.5 – 4 hours.
